

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS29730 / H0733

This proposed legislation amends Chapter 3, Idaho Code, by prohibiting non-academic evaluations, questionnaires, surveys or data collection without having parental or guardian permission and approval of school district board of trustees. Further, all learning or curricular materials or activities used for student instruction on matters of social and emotional learning and mental behavioral well being must be displayed on the school website.

FISCAL NOTE

There is no fiscal impact to the general fund or to local governments.
